Statement of (female) claimant of the legal right Widaad Muhammad Shaker Mahmoud (illegible), born in [REDACTED] house wife, her mother (sic) (illegible) Aboud, lives in AlQibla, University Neighbourhood near (illegible) school. She is the mother of the martyred victim Ali Salaam AbdulHussain and will state as follows:

- On 10/4/2007 and while I was in my house which is located in the University Neighbourhood, my 15-year old son Muhammad came and informed me that my son the victim Ali Salaam had been shot by the British Forces in AlMuhandiseen Neighbourhood while at work in that area as a car wash attendant. The British Forces were engaged in random shooting at passers-by. My son was hit in the head which caused his death. Then he was taken to Basra General Hospital where (illegible) my son Ali (illegible) the deceased died from his sustained injuries. He had been a middle school student at AlAkrameen Evening (sic) High School. The incident took place at 3:30 pm on 10/4/2007. I want to file a complaint for compensation against the British Forces.
